

I Shouldn't Enjoy (Enjoyin' You So Much)

Loretta Lynn

I don't have the time for one more glass of wine, but I can't resist

I should go home, but it's been so long since I felt like this
The look on your face tells me one more taste won't be much
I shouldn't enjoy enjoyin' you so much

It would be a sin to be taken in by your blue eyes
Oh and I've never been a stranger before in paradise, paradise
This wanting's so real, I almost can feel your touch
I shouldn't enjoy enjoyin' you so much

It would be a sin to be taken in by your blue eyes
Oh and I've never been a stranger before in paradise, paradise
This wanting's so real, I almost can feel your touch
I shouldn't enjoy enjoyin' you so much
