

Mountain Climber

Loretta Lynn

Everybody's gotta start somewhere
Most want to start at the top
When they fail, it ain't their fault it hurts
Lord, it's that sudden stop
I've got a lot of ambition and I love competition
I give it all a try and I'll do it or die
'Cause I'm a mountain climber

Yea I'm a mountain climber
The higher the mountain, the better I like it
When I've got a dream, I go for it
When the dream comes true, I'll know it
A quitter is a loser and a winner never quits
And I never stop till I get to the top
'Cause I'm a mountain climber

Well, I wake every morning
And I'm rarin' to go at the bottom of a brand new hill
I'm like a racehorse ready to run
I just can't stand still
I love to be in action
I like the feel of satisfaction
I'm not satisfied till I see the other side
'Cause I'm a mountain climber

Yea I'm a mountain climber
The higher the mountain, the better I like it
When I've got a dream, I go for it
When the dream comes true, I'll know it
A quitter is a loser and a winner never quits
And I never stop till I get to the top
'Cause I'm a mountain climber

No, I never stop till I get to the top
'Cause I'm a mountain climber
