

Nothin'

Loretta Lynn

Take away two lips that whisper I love you and breathe ever breath

To see a man that had a life of pleasure

Take away two arms that held me and a heart made of gold

And then slowly you'll find not much to measure

Let there be silence beatin' out the tortured thoughts

That keeps keep hangin' on inside my head and I know it will never leave

Take away you from me and that leaves nothin'

Nothin' not even a mem'ry to remember

Nothin' and nothin' has no heart to surrender

Just like the glass of wine you drink until it's empty

Take away you from me that leaves nothin'

Nothin' not even a mem'ry to remember

Nothin' and nothin' has no heart to surrender

Just like the glass of wine you drink until it's empty

Take away you from me that leaves nothin'
