

She'll Never Know

Loretta Lynn

She'll never know she ever lost you to me
So she'll never know that you have been returned
I'll be the one who'll settle for a memory
She'll never know the table's almost turned

She'll never know what it is that I've done for her
Why not keepin' you when you know that I can
But then she'll never know what I've done to her
I've kept your love and just sent back the man

She'll never know that you have ever loved me
So she won't know how much I miss your touch
I return the prize possession to his owner
I only hope she treasures you as much

She'll never know what it is that I've done for her
Why not keepin' you when you know that I can
But then she'll never know what I've done to her
I've kept your love and just sent back the man
I've kept your love and just sent back the man
