Stronger Than You Ever Thought I'd Be

Loretta Lynn

Your key can still unlock my door
But your love doesn't fit here anymore
Tonight when you come walkin' in from town
With your leftover lovin', I won't take it lying down

I'm stronger that you ever thought I'd be
So don't come home from her lovin' me
Well, tonight I'm not the weaker one down on my knees
I'm stronger than you ever thought I'd be

The girl in me is gonna cry
The woman in me is about to say goodbye
The hardest thing I'll ever have to do
Is giving up the habit of giving in to you

I'm stronger than you ever thought I'd be
So don't come home from her lovin' me
Tonight I'm not the weaker one down on my knees
I'm stronger than you ever thought I'd be

I'm stronger than you ever thought I'd be
