These Ole Blues

Loretta Lynn

I'm lonesome and blue
No one to tell my troubles to
I got nothin' left to lose
Since I lost you
That old moon up in the sky
Don't even know the reason why
That you left me all alone
And so blue

Them doggone blues, I've got 'em bad
Takes all the love I've ever had
All the sorrow that I've bled
Don't have no one to even care
That old moon up in the sky
Don't even know the reason why
That you left me all alone
And so blue

This old heart of mine is cursed
It just goes from bad to worse
Lord I've cried me a river, maybe two Ain't borne a smile since don't know when Probably never will again
Since you left me all alone
And so blue

Them doggone blues, I've got 'em bad
Takes all the love I've ever had
All the sorrow that I've bled
Don't have no one to even care
That old moon up in the sky
Don't even know the reason why
That you left me all alone
And so blue

That old moon up in the sky
Don't even know the reason why
That you left me all alone
And so blue
