Down Here

Lori Carson

My oh my, will you look at the time?
I've wasted all these years gone by
And I can't even talk to you
Don't even try, oh well

Down here it's as you left it
I'm waiting for the gray to clear
Don't know what I'm running on
Some time ago all hope was gone

Down here
What I wouldn't give for a real love
What I wouldn't give for that peace of mind
Down here

Down here
I'm leaving the light on
And I guess I could be wrong
Down here

Now I know I tend to get down
I don't even see it when it's coming around
But sure could use some kind of change
About now, oh well

Down here it's as you left it
I'm waiting for the gray to clear
Don't know what I'm running on
Some time ago all hope was gone

Down here
What I wouldn't give for a real love
What I wouldn't give for that peace of mind
Down here

Down here
I'm leaving the light on
And I guess I could be wrong
Down here

Down here it's as you left it
I'm waiting for the gray to clear
