

In Darkness

Lorna Shore

We are alive
I watch the shadows
Fall on horizons we echo
We are the difference
A congregation of like minded hues and separation
An introversion of life
Am I broken, lost, battered and tossed
I was the one on the outside
Searching for peace I would never find

Black roses loom in the dark
Never to fall apart
We were perfectly sewn over imperfect bones
We made a home in the shadow of madness

We live in darkness
In darkness
We come to life
In darkness we won't die
We will survive

Beneath the valleys of darkness
Between mountains of deliverance
We found a home buried below
The shadows in between the rabble we let go
We're not misplaced, naught, cursed and rot
We are the ones burning inside
This is how it feels to be alive

Moonflowers bloom in the dark
Never to fall apart

We live in darkness
In darkness
In darkness rave
Exalt the fight
In this emptiness we come to life
In darkness we are alive

We were perfectly sewn over imperfect bones
We made a home in the shadow of madness

We live
In darkness
In darkness
In darkness rave
Exalt the fight
In this emptiness we come to life
In darkness we are alive
We will survive
In darkness we are alive
