

Mirror, Mirror

Lorrie Morgan

Mirror, Mirror on the wall
Who's the saddest of us all
I didn't recognize the face as mine
Stained with tears and Father time

I've tasted wine upon my tongue
I've danced with kings and debutants
Mirror, Mirror can't you see
Reflections of what used to be

Oh, if I only knew I'd end up lonely
Oh, if I only knew I'd end up sad
Maybe I'd found my one and only
In all the loves I've had
There's no such thing as happy endings
Make believe and fairy tales
I've been a fool for pretending
But Mirror don't you tell

Mirror, Mirror you don't lie
We have these talks most every night
You know my secrets all so well
Why I'm here all by myself

Oh, if I only knew I'd end up lonely
Oh, if I only knew I'd end up sad
Maybe I'd found my one and only
In all the loves I've had
There's no such thing as happy endings
Make believe and fairy tales
I've been a fool for pretending
But Mirror don't you tell

Mirror, Mirror on the wall
Mirror, Mirror on the wall