

Ode to Billie Joe

Lorrie Morgan

It was the third of June, another sleepy, dusty Delta day
I was out choppin' cotton and my brother was balin' hay
And at dinner time we stopped and walked back to the house to eat And Mama hollered out the back door, "Y'all remember to wipe yo ur feet
And then she said, "I got some news this mornin' from Choctaw R idge
Today Billie Joe MacAllister jumped off the Tallahatchie Bridge

And Papa said to Mama as he passed around the black-eyed pease
"Well, Billie Joe never had a lick of sense. Pass the biscuits, please There's five more acres in the lower forty I've got to plow"
And Mama said it was a shame about Billie Joe, anyhow Seems like nothin' ever comes to no good up on Choctaw Ridge And now Billie Joe MacAllister's jumped off the Tallahatchie Br idge

And brother said he recollected when he and Tom and Billie Joe
He put a frog down my back at the Carroll County picture show And wasn't I talkin' to him after church last Sunday night?
"I'll have another piece of apple pie. You know, it don't seem right

I saw him at the sawmill yesterday on Choctaw Ridge
And now you tell me Billie Joe's jumped off the Tallahatchie Br idge"

Mama said to me, "Child, what's happened to your appetite?
I've been cookin' all morning and you haven't touched a single bite
That nice young preacher, Brother Taylor, dropped by today Said he'd be pleased to have dinner on Sunday. Oh, by the way
He said he saw a girl that looked a lot like you up on Choctaw Ridge
And she and Billie Joe was throwing somethin' off the Tallahatc hie Bridge"

A year has come 'n' gone since we heard the news 'bout Billie J oe
And brother married Becky Thompson, they bought a store in Tupe lo
There was a virus going 'round, Papa caught it and he died last Spring
And now Mama doesn't seem to wanna do much of anything And me, I spend a lot of time pickin' flowers up on Choctaw Rid ge

And drop them into the muddy water off the Tallahatchie Bridge
