

On This Bed

Lorrie Morgan

On this bed Ive been a new born baby
A teenager wild and crazy
I've been a wo man and a lady
And on this bed I have dreamt and yearned
I have prayed tossed and turned
On this bed

And on this bed tonight
I can feel my love once holding t me tight
I can see my savior reaching out for me
On this bed i can hear the angels sing

On this bed
Well I have cried some tears
I have smiled from ear to ear
I have lied and been sincere
On this bed where I have given birth
Tonigt I give this old body to the earth
On this bed

And on this bed tonight
I can feel my love once holding t me tight
I can see my savior reaching out for me
On this bed i can hear the angels sing
