

Old Times

Los Retros

Here with you, is what I choose
Not mistaken for, another girl that tore
My heart, another try
It's all that I can give, so go ahead and live

To be what you wanna be
But I miss the old times
The best times
The only times I'll ever seek

I'm okay, don't worry
This feeling never stops, and neither does your heart
But something, makes me worry
The changes of your thoughts, of everything I've got

To be what I wanna be
It's all I ever done, always been me
I promise
So I'll just let you go

To be what you wanna be
But I miss the old times
The best times
The only times that I'll ever seek
The only times that I'll ever seek

Ohhhh... ohhhh...
