

Someone To Spend Time With

Los Retros

Wake up alone
In the morning with no one at my side
Could it be
I've waited too long
Waiting for the lucky one

My sweetheart, where are you?
I need someone to spend time with
To give and share all my love

Back in bed
It's 3 a.m
With no one at my side
It gets real cold
Because these blankets
Will never warm my heart

My sweetheart, where are you?
I need someone to spend time with
To give and share all my love
My sweetheart, where are you?
I need someone to spend time with
To give and share all my love
My sweetheart, where are you?
I need someone to spend time with
To give and share all my love
