Okay miss what's you're flavour?

I can't really focus since you popped up on my radar

All those dirty texts you were sending on my iphone

I might have to punish you for all that misbehaviour (flavour)

Yo little miss, what's the chances niggas get excited when you see the way s he dances

Told her don't compare me to these guys, I am the king here

All these little rappers spending all of their advances (shape)

Yo pretty woman, what's your game like?

Pull up to your crib, and then I fix you like a break light

I can your boyfriend doesn't give you what you ask for

You can write a little list of things that I should make right (shape right)

Ay Stormz, she look better without makeup

That's just my opinion

Cute little slim ting

You know that I'm the in ting

Both of us are win-win

Throw it or a quinting

Save it for later, aya

Okay miss what's you're flavour?

Do me a favour

Ooh baby tell me what's the drama?

Kisses on your neck a bit of Louis, bit of Prada

Late-night joking, giving it the haha

Rocking with a g, b I grew up in the gaza wagwan

They are out of tune and I love that

Out in the games if you leave you can't come back

Texting on her iPhone, true say that I like hoes

I'll be like "slow down baby no palava" uh uh

Ooh baby tell me what's the drama?

Saw her get excited when she found out I'm from Ghana?

I can't really figure out her flavour but she's fruity

Do it like I'm belly squad and give her the banana (ana)

Tell me little miss, how's you're day been?

Sorry I don't answer any questions what's he dreaming?

I could be the sweet boy, street boy, punching out his teeth boy

And everybody love me like I'm Raymond
(Cold)
