Lost Kings

Bang bang, you always shot me down so carefully
So I, bled out, and didn't even realize
I gave you all of the things that you want
And you gave me nothin'
Now there's somethin' never left that's unsaid
And it's on my mind

Fuck you for thinkin' that I
Would be cool and let you in
And fuck you for every time
That you got under my skin
And I know that I said I would always be your friend
But I guess that you used all your chances in the end, so
Fuck you for wastin' my time
Fuck you for everything

You came rushing through my home like a hurricane
Now I got these flowers growing from my scars
Oh funny how you think now that you got me
Right where you want me
But there's just one thing, listen in
I know who you are

Fuck you for thinkin' that I
Would be cool and let you in
And fuck you for every time
That you got under my skin
And I know that I said I would always be your friend
But I guess that you used all your chances in the end, so
Fuck you for wastin' my time
Fuck you for everything

No I won't be yours tonight
'Cause I know just what you're like
Now there's one thing on my mind
Are you listenin', are you?

Fuck you for thinkin' that I
Would be cool and let you in
And fuck you for every time
That you got under my skin
And I know that I said I would always be your friend
But I guess that you used all your chances in the end, so
Fuck you for wastin' my time
Fuck you for everything
