

Runaway

Lost Kings

Tell me if you wanna roll, where we rolling?
Tell me where you wanna go, if we're going?
I ain't tryna hide the way I feel
'Cause the way that I want you, so different
I don't get emotional, not too often
When I get emotional, can't get off it
If you wanna feel it out, we can feel it out, let's cruise

If you keep on tellin' me to run away, away
I'll do it for someone like you, away, away
I'll do it for someone like you

It's killing me and it's killing you
And it's numbing the feeling
You, keep telling me to run away, away
I'll do it for someone like you

This feels like a milestone, we should mark it
Leave 'em on a dial tone, where we parking
Not tryna hide the way I feel, you know that I'm feeling you, woo
We can do this all the time, babe (Woo)
Every day and every night, babe
If the vibe is right don't hesitate
'Cause it's too rare to try and fake (Yeah, yeah)

If you keep on tellin' me then we run away, away
(Away, away-away, way-way)
I'll do it for someone like you, away, away (Oh-oh)
I'll do it for someone like you

It's killing me (Ayy, yeah) and it's killing you (Oh no)
And it's numbing the feeling
You, keep telling me to run away, away
I'll do it for someone like you
You, you, you, you
I'll do it for someone like you
You, you, you, you (Ooh-ooh, ooh)

If you keep on tellin' me to run away, away
(Away, away, away, away, away, away, away)
I'll do it for someone like you, away, away (Oh-oh)
I'll do it for someone like you

It's killing me (Ayy, yeah) and it's killing you (It's killing you, babe)
And it's numbing the feeling
You, keep telling me to run away, away
(You telling me to run with you)
I'll do it for someone like you

I'll do it for someone like you
