

Awake

Lost Society

No sign of life, can you hear my heart beating
No sign of pulse, am I still breathing
Like a frequency lost in a symphony
Can you hear me screaming
I'm finally awake

I can't breathe
My eyes are burning and I'm down on my knees
I finally see
That I've been running from what was right in front of me
I can't feel
I'm just a memory of what I used to be
I'm on the way towards a better day
I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

Buried alive
Beneath the skies that taught me to cry
No sign of light
It's like I'm blind but I know it's not goodbye
Give me a sign
That I'll survive as my two worlds collide
I feel my pain, it burns away
I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

I'm finally awake

No sign of life, can you hear my heart beating
No sign of pulse, am I still breathing
Like a frequency lost in a symphony
Can you hear me screaming
I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

Bury my soul
Like something haunting and so beautiful
I finally see
All that I could need was always right in front of me
'Cause I can't breathe
My eyes are burning and I'm down on my knees
I've never felt so free
I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

No sign of life, can you hear my heart beating
No sign of pulse, am I still breathing
Like a frequency lost in a symphony
Can you hear me screaming
I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

I may be powerless but I'm finally awake
I'm finally awake
I'm finally awake

No sign of life, can you hear my heart beating
No sign of pulse, am I still breathing
Like a frequency lost in a symphony
Can you hear me screaming
I may be powerless but I'm finally
I may be powerless but I'm finally

I may be powerless but I'm finally awake

Finally awake
