

No Absolution

Lost Society

No absolution
Go!

You can scream but words won't come out
You're bleeding on the ground
Are you dead or are you dying?
Rip your soul out of your bones
When you die you're gonna die alone
Are you scared of not surviving?
Feel the warm embrace of death
Before you fade into the darkness
Your shadow will scream its last farewell
When tomorrow sends us all to hell
No absolution
For an unknown face
Ruins of a revolution
In an unknown grave
Believing in lies
Believing in paradise
You sacrificed yourself for nothing
Betrayed and buried alive
Just another hero left to die
You sacrificed yourself for nothing

Your shadow will scream its last farewell
When tomorrow sends us all to hell
The god you follow won't save you now
No one will save you now
'Cause tomorrow will send us all to hell
No absolution
For an unknown face
Ruins of a revolution
In an unknown grave

You sacrificed yourself for nothing
Go!

Your shadow will scream its last farewell
When tomorrow sends us all to hell (To hell)
The god you follow won't save you now
No one will save you now
'Cause tomorrow will send us all to hell
No absolution
For an unknown face
Ruins of a revolution
In an unknown grave
