

Worthless

Lost Society

We want salvation
But we strive to be mortal slaves
Brought up in isolation
We pledge allegiance to undying hate

I've seen this all before, no rise
Without the fall
I've seen this all before

Worthless, Worthless
You're fucking worthless

Pray for redemption
We are doomed to a life in flames
Rotting like an infection
We keep on fading 'til nothing remains

I've seen this all before, no rise
Without the fall

Worthless, Worthless
You're fucking worthless

Waste of life
Why can't you see that you are
Dead inside, and nothing but a fool
I dare someone
To tell me why I shouldn't go
One on one, and end your sorry life
Live for nothing, die for nothing

Worthless, worthless
You're fucking worthless
