

One Day...

Lost Soul

One day I woke up and nothing was there
I searched and searched - I looked everywhere
A total annihilation
A nuclear devastation
Our so-called leaders destroyed
The world population
No more civilization
Genetic mutilation
From nuclear devastation

Who pushed the button?
Who could it have been?
By destroying it all,
Did they think they would win???

But it is all gone now - this place that we called home
We were slowly killing the world, but it can die no more

Because someone destroyed the world

One day you will wake up as well...
