

Broken Hearts, Torn Up Letters And The Story Of A Lonely Girl

Lostprophets

If you want to make it better...

F

Her hands are in her pockets

G

And she's scared to look

Am

The picture's frozen

And she's closed the book

F

G

Jealousy has only got one friend

Am

And Joey's heart was never meant to mend

F

G

Walking faster now she holds him close

Am

The timing matters just to take the dose

F

G

Am

Empty pockets tell the stories..

C

G

Am

And there's no destiny when everyone's your enemy

C

G

F

Take your jealous heart and cast it into stone

C

G

You'll regret it all

Am

Living behind your wall

C

And you'll never fall in love

G

F

If you don't fall at all.

Broken hearts and torn up letters

Girl you just can't dance forever

If you want to make it better...

F

The nights are getting darker

G

And the wind is cold

Am

The summer sun

Has now become so old

F

Her closest friends

G

Were never meant to fade

Am

With all these dreams

That didn't make the grade

F

G

Close the doors but never look inside

Am

Time will tell if all your love has died

F G Am
Empty pockets tell the stories...

C G Am
