Lostprophets

Grow in the punching sun
Trough everything we've done
Yeah, we sing and we probably rise
Through it all undefeated

I live this life, measure out these days
By the sun that shines
And the pouring rain
But I still believe
That I was meant to be
Right here...

Maybe I make mistakes
But I can't be wrong
I know where I am going
Where I'm coming from
'Cos in my head the future seems so clear

Rise above the ground
Live your life out loud
And sing with me!

So, baby, hold your time
And I'll be all right
So come on, come on
When you know that you're right
You're gonna...

Grow in the punching sun
Trough everything we've done
Yeah, we sing and we probably rise
Through it all undefeated

Time and time again
I always real defend
Everything I am until the bitter end
Yeah, I still believe that I was meant to be

Live your life out loud
And sing with me!

So, baby, hold your time
And I'll be all right
So come on, come on
When you know that you're right
You're gonna...

Grow in the punching sun
Trough everything we've done
Yeah, we sing and we probably rise
Through it all undefeated

Grow in the punching sun
Trough everything we've done
Yeah, we sing and we probably rise

Through it all undefeated
