Lotus Eater

The grip you had on me
It's always there to see
The marks take solace
Embedded deep In my skin

Fixating on my weakness
The blackest of hearts
One hand controlled my future
One waved goodbye

Twitching, turning
Awake through this endless feeling

Let me out, I am so cold
Let me out, I am so cold
My body is tired of aching
I'm sick of waking up

To a life full of hate
Nothingness
A meaningless void

Patiently waiting for the tick of the clock

To start my endless slumber

This wilting landscape
No sign of life
I tried to escape
But still I live in fear

No institution
Can erase what's embedded in my skull

Embedded in my skull

My skull

The grip you had on me
It's always there to see
The marks take solace
Embedded deep in my skin

Fixating on my weakness
The blackest of hearts
One hand controlled my future
One waved goodbye

One waved goodbye

Kill the bully
Kill him faster
Kill him
Kill the bully
Kill him faster
Kill him now
