

Freak

Lotus Eater

I wanna talk about something real
Our lives have become so stale
What happened to being a freak
And never feeling weak

But now it's all the same
No one to change the game
That screen you sit behind
Well now's your fucking time

Change the norm
Bring back the stares and shouts
And feed off the uncomfortable

I wanna be a freak
So far from the sheep

I wanna talk about something real
Our lives have become so stale
What happened to being a freak
And never feeling weak

But now it's all the same
No one to change the game
That screen you sit behind
Well now's your fucking time

No door to sit behind
No cage for this creature
A bark with so much bite
Forever the wiser

It's in my blood
This green viscous fluid
But it keeps me alive
So alive

Are you used to it?
