

Gloom

Lotus Eater

It's only ever here
When I think of you
I'm only accustomed
To your voice, and it fucking hurts

You caused this pain
And all I do is forever take the fucking blame

Sorrow, a feeling unwanted
Sadness haunts me
It's never going away

No longer reasoning
Why I am slowly fading
I am slowly fading
I am slowly fading away

So I let it overcome me

Like always
You've forced me to waste away Forever
Trapped in this hell you made

Frame my mistakes
Engrave them in your memory
I'm just a waste of space
Not worthy of your trust

Gloom is my home
Gloom is now my home
