

Jawless

Lotus Eater

Coping with this pain
The strength I can't find
My mind is in pieces
Shattered on the floor

You'll never know
What it's like to be alone
How do you call it fake?
Stop, know your place

Five years was all it was
It turned me to dust
Not a single eye glanced at me
As I crumbled beneath their feet

I am aching
Someone save me
This feeling I can't hide
It's carved into a grin

This is where it begins
You've broken me
For all to see

Ease the pain
Look at me

I am aching
Someone save me
This feeling I can't hide
It's carved into a grin

Coping with this pain
The strength I can't find
My mind is in pieces
I can't fight it
