

Second To None

Lotus Eater

Know that this is for you
I'm only there with you here
A need, never a want
You're etched into my skin
Etched into my skin, etched into my skin
Etched into my skin
You're etched into my fucking skin

In my soul
My own soul

The mind's pallet harbours all that's ours
A perfect view, an exercised obsession with you

You're second to none
Incomparable
No one can touch you
A miracle

You're second to none
It's uncontrollable
This feeling inside
It's second to none

Fuel me with fire
I'll never need anyone else with me
Your presence makes time stand still
Your presence makes time stand still
An image untainted
Maximum perfection
An anomaly

You're second to none
It's uncontrollable
This feeling inside
It will never die

You're second to none
It's incomparable
This feeling inside
It will never die

Second to none
You're second to none
