Subvert & Attain

Lotus Eater

I hate
What's made my world turn grey
With all I lack, I can't go back
Till the day, everything has changed

Sombre feelings have become me
It's finally controlled me

Sweating at the thought of peace
I'm not worthy any more
Pray for my broken soul
I am one with this

Treading lightly
'Cause this rope is about to snap
Holding on
Forever

Sombre feelings have become me
It's finally controlled me

I hate
What's made my world turn grey
With all I lack, I can't go back
Till the day, everything has changed

Sweating at the thought of peace
I'm not worthy
Not any more
Pray for my broken soul
I am one with this

Treading lightly
'Cause this rope is about to snap
Holding on
Forever
