

Too Much Freedom

Lou Barlow

I have too much freedom
people I'm enraged

Heaven should be hidden build a gilded cage

and stay inside
I have too much freedom

dare I ask for more questions are expensive

answers lead to war
they own the world

whatever manic state
whatever they are boy or girl

led to the altar blind led what thy keeper threw

if you believe
the back of the mind won't do break through

who alone owns the world
whatever manic state

no heart beats stronger no love lasts longer
