

The Power of Positive Drinking

Lou Reed

Some like wine and some like hops but what I really love is my scotch It's the power, the power of positive drinking

Some people ruin their drinks with ice and then they, they ask you for advice They tell you, I've never told anyone else before

They say, Candy is dandy but liquor makes quipsters and I don't like mixers, or sippers or sob sisters You know, you have to be real careful where you sit down in a bar these days

And then some people drink to unleash their libidos and other people drink to prop up their egos It's my burdon, man, people say I have the kind of face you can trust

The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive drinking
The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
the pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
the pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive drinking

Some people say, alcohol makes you less lucid and think that's true if you're kind of stupid I'm not that kind that get's himself burned twice

And some say liquor kills the cells in your head and for that matter so does getting out of bed
When I exit, I'll go out gracefully, shot in my hand

The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive drinking
The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
The pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
the pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive
the pow-pow-pow-pow-power of positive drinking
