

Broken Jesus

Loudness

Sacred questions in the noon day sin
Silent whispers in the rain
Each day I ask what have we done
Then holy night brings back my pain

Are we all alone? Left to die
Is he coming home? TO our side

I am so afraid of what I'm not
Watching everything around me rot
Won't someone please come save me

Broken Jesus, Crashing down
Broken Jesus, on the ground
Broken Jesus, Will I follow!
Broken Jesus, Come and take me away

Look salvation, in it's empty eye
Without hope why even try

And I all alone, Left to die
I just can't go on, hear his cry

Like a prayer unspoken promises are broken
There is no one, who will ever escape

Broken Jesus, Crashing down
Broken Jesus, on the ground
Broken Jesus, Will I follow!
Broken Jesus, Come and take me away

Sacred questions in the noon day sin
Silent whispers in the rain
Look salvation, in it's empty eye
Without hope why even try

Judas runs, The faithful hide
Kingdom comes, Through bloodstained lies

I am so afraid of what I'm not
Watching everything around me rot
Won't someone please come save me

Broken Jesus, Crashing down
Broken Jesus, on the ground
Broken Jesus, Will I follow!
Broken Jesus, Come and take me away

Waiting for the changes
Praying for the day
Waiting for the changes
In the hands of fate
