

No Limits

Loudness

Drowned in the darkness
Won't you light my way
I'm going to vanish
All without a trace

Comes a fear of feeling out of place
Wake to nightmare
Eyes without a face

I'm trying to break a spell
Crawling out of hell
Can't you hear me yell?
Banging the bell
I've got no soul to sell
But a thing or two to tell
I know my heart is frail
But I just can't fail

Trapped in the middle
Should've known long ago
Deeper in I go
Eternal vertigo

Feeling so small
More than you know
Missing my soul
The body is hollow

I'm trying to break a spell
Crawling out of hell
Can't you hear me yell?
Banging the bell
I've got no soul to sell
But a thing or two to tell
I know my heart is frail
But I just can't fail

Sky above
Endless universe
Break the chains
That are tying you to the ground
'Til we hit the ceiling
'Til we hit the ground
Shout out your anger
Shout out your rage

Forget tomorrow
Give up the past
Embrace the power within you
Life's an illusion
Fades like a flame
Nothing to be scared of
All thing must pass

Forget tomorrow!
Give up the past!

I'm trying to break a spell
Crawling out of hell
Can't you hear me yell?
Banging the bell
I've got no soul to sell
But a thing or two to tell
I know my heart is frail

Endless universe
Break the chains
That are tying you to the ground
'Til we hit the ground
Shout out your anger
Shout out your rage

Forget tomorrow!
Give up the past!
