Loudness

Stand to survive! Stand to survive! Oh...

On the verge of desperation My hope's all blown away Wailing in side and it hurts so Haunted by recurring nightmare Now I know it's real My soul's screaming "I've got to survive"

Losing myself to a life of confusion and pain It's easy to give up the future but had to retain

Oh... Stand to survive

Oh... Get over fears (Got to survive!) Oh... Follow your heart There's no wrong and right Just darkness and light You've got to carry on Oh... Flame's burning higher

Losing myself to a life of confusion and pain It's easy to give up the future but had to retain

Life is a quest for finding who you are Stepping into the unknown to embrace your dream Breaking away from the status quo I know the price to pay

I'd sacrifice all that I have to survive

Oh... Stand to survive! Oh... Stand to survive! Oh... Stand to survive! Oh...

Oh... Stand to survive! Stand to survive! Stand to survive! Stand to survive! Oh...

Losing myself to a life of confusion and pain It's easy to give up the future but had to retain

Life is a quest for finding who you are Stepping into the unknown to embrace your dream Breaking away from the status quo I know the price to pay

I'd sacrifice all that I have to survive

Chasing the sun There's no turning back Come the dawn again A rainbow I'll never let go I'll survive

Oh... Stand to survive! Oh... Stand to survive! Oh... Stand to survive! Oh...

A rainbow I'll never let go Oh...
