

Everybody I Know

Loudon Wainwright III

Everybody I know wants to look pretty
Everybody I know wants to look good
Beautiful ones are all havin' their fun
And everybody agrees that they should

You got a beautiful body and a beautiful face
Everything will be alright
Everybody loves a beautiful thang
Gonna love you every day and each night

Well, I saw a man with a wooden arm
And a woman who had no nose
And a baby with a scar and a hunchbacked girl
And so much more, God knows

And I get scared when I see that stuff
I bet that you do too
I wanna cover my eyes, I wanna run away
I don't know just what to do

Because everybody I know wants to look pretty
Everybody I know wants to look good
Beautiful ones are all havin' their fun
