

Undecided

Louis Prima

First, you say you will and then you won't
Then you say you do and then you don't
You're undecided now, ay, what are you gonna do?

Now, you wanna play and then it's no
And when you say you'll stay, that's when you go
You're undecided now, ay, what are you gonna do?

I've been sitting on a fence, don't make much sense
You keeping me in suspense and you know it
You promise to return, when you don't I really burn
Well, I guess I'll never learn and I show it

If you've got a heart make up your mind
Don't keep us apart and please be kind
You're undecided now, what are you gonna do?

Hey, what you gonna do?
What're you gonna do?

I've been sitting on a fence, it don't make much sense
'Cause you keep me in suspense and you know it
You promise to return, when you don't I really burn
Well, I guess I'll never learn and I show it

If you've got a heart make up your mind
Don't keep us apart and please be kind
You're undecided now, ay, what are you gonna do?

First, you say you will and then you won't
And then you say you do and then you don't
You're undecided now, ay

Now, you wanna play and then it's no
And when you say you'll stay, that's when you go
You're undecided now, ay

I've been sitting on a fence, don't make much sense
One, two, three
You promise to return, when you don't I really burn

First, you say you will and then you won't
And then you say you do and then you don't
You're undecided now
What're you gonna do?
What're you gonna do?
What're you gonna do?
What're you gonna do?
