

We All Have Dreams

Louis The Child

We All have dreams
At least got one
We all have memories
That we can't return to
We all need
That same love
And I could give you some
So let me give you some

Wake up in the morning to be something
But keep on getting blinded by the negative
My mind is on the run I gotta learn to sprint
If I wanna win, if I wanna win

Mamma always said that I would find my path
But lately I've been feeling like I lost the map
Fuck all my mistakes, I'm gonna ride right past
And try it again, try it again

Everybody living out the age old story
Hurting and they loving and they fight
Everybody living out the age old story
No one thinks they're doing it right

We All have dreams
At least got one
We all have memories
That we can't return to
We all need
That same love
And I could give you some
So let me give you some

Everywhere I look somebody else has made it
Feeling insecure I wanna hide away, ya
Do I even like the life I've created
I'm on the edge, I'm on the edge

Mamma always said that I would find my tribe
But where is everybody on a Friday night, nah
Fuck the loneliness, I'm gonna switch the vibe, yah
I got my friends, I love my friends

Everybody living out the age old story
Hurting and they loving and they fight
Everybody living out the age old story
No one thinks they're doing it right

We All have dreams
At least got one
We all have memories
That we can't return to
We all need
And I could give you some

You came alone but you got the world, right by your side
You came alone but you got the world, right by your side
Right by your side

We All have dreams
At least got one
We all have memories
We all need
And I could give you some

Came alone but you got the world, right by your side
