

Help

Louis Tomlinson

Why am I awake in last night's clothes?
Why is there a street sign on the floor?
Why am I pretending? I don't know
(Oh yeah, oh yeah)
'Cause I already called you about tonight
Told you there would be no compromise
No matter what you say, I'll change your mind
(Oh yeah, oh yeah)

'Cause you know the first night's a blessing
The second one hurts
But that won't slow me down, down
Couldn't learn a lesson for what it's worth
But that won't stop me now

I might need help
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over
Would you help me, come with me
'Cause I can't do it alone
Help, 'cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again

Here we go again, this one's the last
That could be a lie based on my past
Everyone I know grows up too fast
(Oh yeah, oh yeah)

'Cause you know the first night's a blessing
The second one hurts
But that won't slow me down, down
Couldn't learn a lesson for what it's worth
But that won't stop me now

I might need help
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over
Would you help me, come with me
'Cause I can't do it alone
Help, 'cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again

First night's a blessing, second one's a curse
But that won't slow me down, down
Couldn't learn a lesson for what it's worth
But that won't stop me now

I might need help
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over
Would you help me, come with me
'Cause I can't do it alone
Help, 'cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again

I might need help
'Cause I'm about to do it, do it all over again