

Hurt

Louise

Head back, feet on the dashboard
Sing loud to songs that we don't know
Swear I almost heard you say, "We should never go back"
So let's never go back

And road signs flash by
Like the blurred lines in my mind 'cause I know
That fast love burns up

I know it's gonna hurt, but I'd rather be a fool
Than let my heart hate me for not givin' it to you
The more I give it up, the more I've gotta lose
But my heart'd never blame me if I break it over you

So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready
So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready

We talk like it's the real deal
Link arms and dance on the minefield
Swear that almost for a moment we were safe and sound
We're not safe right now

But I'm blind, yeah, I'm fine
With the blurred lines in my mind 'cause I know
That fast love burns up

I know it's gonna hurt, but I'd rather be a fool
Than let my heart hate me for not givin' it to you
The more I give it up, the more I've gotta lose
But my heart'd never blame me if I break it over you

So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready
So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready

Head back, feet on the dashboard
Sing loud to songs that we don't know
Swear I almost heard you say, "We should never go back"
Hm

I know it's gonna hurt, but I'd rather be a fool
Than let my heart hate me for not givin' it to you
The more I give it up, the more I've gotta lose
But my heart'd never blame me if I break it over you

So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready
So heal me with your love, heal me with your love
Give me all your love, I'm ready, oh, I'm ready
