

Tragedy

Love and Death

I am only human
Can't face this wounded heart
I stand here still unwoven
Held together yet falling apart

I've been running from the light
Feels like I've been

Searching for a thousand years inside of me
It's nothing but broken
Return for more just to feed my tragedy

What have I won
What have I done

I breathe but slipping under
Self control never went far
Still haunted and left to wonder
And reopen forgotten scars

Searching for a thousand years inside of me
It's nothing but broken
Return for more just to feed my tragedy

Too late for goodbyes
You promised me rapture
Too late for goodbyes
You promised me rapture

Tragedy
You'll never get inside
You'll never get inside
Tragedy
You'll never get inside
You'll never get

I've been running from the light
Feels like I've been

Searching for a thousand years inside of me
It's nothing but broken

Feed me
