

Wrong Baby Wrong

Love and Theft

Wrong baby wrong baby wrong
It ain't the end of the world
Don't you worry pretty girl
Cause now that he's gone baby gone baby gone
You got nothin' to lose
Count the minutes if you want to
Cause it won't be long baby long baby long
Til you find somebody new

[Chorus:]

C'mon now everyone falls down
Everyone crawls now and then
Then they get up again
You cry if you want to
That's what we all do
But if you think you'll never move on
You're wrong baby wrong

Cry baby cry baby cry
Go on and let it all out
I ain't leavin' you now
And we can get high baby high baby high
We'll share a bottle of wine
We can laugh about the good times
And you'll know why baby why baby why
It's gonna be alright

[Chorus]

No it ain't wrong baby wrong baby wrong
Cause it feels so right
When you put your hand in mine

[Chorus x2]
