

When I gaze into the sky
Glistening, the stars they shine
I think of you
The London air, that flickering light
Would you believe that we got this far
Would you believe

Devotion
The way you move
You stole my heart tonight
My everything
What's mine is yours tonight

Skin to Skin, our souls combine
Your colour melts inside my eyes
It blinds me
Your fragrant scent that tastes so sweet
A sugar rush, my worlds complete

Devotion
The way you move
You stole my heart tonight
My everything
What's mine is yours tonight

Devotion
The way you move
You stole my heart tonight
My everything
You are my everything
