

Unchained

LOVE PSYCHEDELICO

Well, there on your right
Everyone is watching you
See there different lights
Something lies behind
Mean words, sudden move
The patient time is waving you
See there sign of none
But, something is calling you
Ah-yeah ah-yeah
Catch the sight, step inside
Throw in, hide them out
Don't touch a thing for a while
Vacant eyes, frighten mind
Your mouth doesn't move but, in your ears
See there different lights
Something is calling you
**
Oh, what would you do?
When you freeze and could not move
Oh, how would it be?
To feel like all alone in the crowd
Oh, what would you do?
When you freeze and could not move
Oh, how would it be like?
***
Be like unchained
You don't know why
But, you got a feeling
It's alright
****
Unchained on your right
It's alright
Well, there on your mind
Everything is warning you
Go for different lights
Something must be there
Second cry, signals in some honest mind
Stay for a while, go for a while
See there sign of none
You get the feeling of fear
Oh, what would you do?
When you hear the voices inside of you
Oh, how would you like?
What is going on in your mind
Oh, what would you do?
When you hear the voices inside of you
Oh, how would it be like?
*** repeat
**** repeat
* repeat
** repeat
Oh, what would you do?
When you hear the voices inside of you
Oh, how would it be?
*** repeat
Be unchained

On your right
But, you got a feeling
It's alright
Be like unchanged
Once
