

Robert Montgomery

Love

Robert Montgomery lived on the good side of town
He went down to the people that he used to know but they had changed
And though they looked different they still were the same
Yeah yeah

Who was it listening and why were they trying to hear
With those never ending promises are all that we hear in our ears
And even the King sometimes thinks a little weird
The same as all the rest
And I'll give you my best
If you give yours
If you give yours
If you give yours too

Robert Montgomery now can you see who you are?
With the way that they're trapped in
It doesn't seem that you'll get too far
So come up from never Wherever you are
And freak with all the rest

And we'll give you our best
If you give yours
If you give yours
If you give yours too
