

Doomsy

Lovedrug

What's in your head boy
You've gotta believe me somehow
Who's in your head now
I think you're crazy how
You run and run and run around this world
Looking for a reason why

A pretty shoe, a dirty soul
The future is unknown
And God is lost somehow
You think I'm crazy now
I run and run around
Tripping on my feet again
But there's no sound

I just woke up again
And messed up everything
Now I'm losing once again

I just woke up and then
I lost it all again
When will all of this end?

Turn it on, Turn it down
Echoes in this house
Feel all doomsy now

Let the haunting inside
I know where we'll hide
A room beneath the stairs
In my broken heart
