

Spinning Out of Control

Lovedrug

It's been a hell of a summer
But I forgive you, so dry your eyes
If you focus, I would reseal you
Back on your throne

I give you strength in numbers
And then you act like a kid in a cage
I'm out of body, you're experienced
At going alone

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control

Another punk wants to fight me
Just a burn out with two blue eyes
If you've got back up I would beseech them,
Materialize

But I'm a rose not a thunder
A fact they don't seem to understand
Although I can cut you
It's not the thorns
That make me a man

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control

It's been a hell of a summer
But I forgive you, so dry your eyes
If you focus, I would reseal you
Back on your throne

I give you strength in numbers
And then you act like a kid in a cage
I'm out of body, you're experienced
At going alone

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control

Another punk wants to fight me
Just a burn out with two blue eyes
If you've got back up I would beseech them,
Materialize

But I'm a rose not a thunder
A fact they don't seem to understand
Although I can cut you
It's not the thorns
That make me a man

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control

Are we floating alone? [x4]

We are spinning out of control
We are spinning out of control
We are, are we floating alone?
We are spinning out of control
