

Heavy Crown

Lovehammers

What keeps you hanging on?
When the end is near
I see that look in your eyes
You have no fear
Where do you find the strength?
How do you carry on?
Even heroes fall
on a road this long

There will come a day when you will settle down
Rest your head, lay down your heavy crown

So, it's easier this way
Walk into the light, it will be okay
There will come a day
We will reunite
I will make you proud
By the way that I live my life
So now, it's time for you to pass it down
And rest your head, I'll wear your heavy crown

So, it's easier this way
Walk into the light, it will be okay
And you'll know what you mean to me
Our love will never die
You're a part of me

All this time, I saw the truth in your eyes
Now it's that time, time to let go

So, it's easier this way
Walk into the light, it will be okay
And you'll know what you mean to me
Our love will never die
You're a part of me

I fall upon my knees, begin to pray
Now close your eyes and slowly slip away
Away
