

Runaround

Lovehammers

Sittin' round waiting for an honest answer
But it never comes
I spin you around, till the truth comes out
As the pieces of your heart keep falling away out from me

Come to me when I'm asleep
You go run run running around
My wish is, you don't go running away

You appear, I wish I could live forever
Inside a dream of you
I wear my crown, watching you go down
With your waist up on my legs
Like feeling your weight fall on me

Come to me when I'm asleep
You go run run running around
My wish is, you don't go running away

When I awake I see your face
We play up up up in the clouds
Your kisses, feel as sweet as they taste

I keep holding on to you
And I'm not letting go
Cause I know that the price is the price
I pay for what your fighting for
Patient enough to wait and I am breaking down your walls
Are you strong enough to protect a life worth living for

Come to me when I'm asleep
You go run run running around
My wish is, you don't go running away

When I awake I see your face
We play up up up in the clouds
Your kisses, feel as sweet as they taste

Living in my dream of you, uh uh oh oh oh oh oh
Living in my dream of you
Living in my dream of you, uh uh oh oh oh oh oh
