Sleeper

Lovehammers

Last night I dreamt I was sleeping
Peaceful, lonesome
Perfect heaven
Last night I dreamt I was dreaming
Drank the potion
But still I feel the demons

And I'll go but I already know
What is there for me
And I'll go but I already know
What is there

The moment's still
I'm free

Bright lights shine on a new day
Body's sleeping
But my mind's awake
Weight of the world descending
How can I
Possibly change the world?

I'll go but I already know
What is there for me
I'll go but I already know
What is there

Don't wanna bring you down
Don't wanna bring you down
Don't wanna bring you

Feeling fine, I'm feeling good
Feeling like I never should Wish I may I wish I might
I pray tomorrow I'll be alive
I can't stand the pressure, keep it together
Feel like the nightmare's gonna last forever

Maybe I'm just scared
Maybe I don't care
Maybe I'm just scared
Maybe I should change

Here we are
Falling asleep
On our dreams
