

Think Twice (Running With Scissors, Pt. II)

Lovehatehero

I just stopped by to see what was goin' on.
What you doin' all
Worried that it's back? And I know:
It's not as easy as 1, 2, 3, L-O-V-E;
Line it up and forget everything.
You're sitting there alone, I feel there's Nowhere left to hide.

I put aside my feelings,
It's eating your insides.

Think twice, now you could lose everything,
You got another thing coming.
And we're holding in, I'm holding on;
I could wait out here for hours.
Think twice, hold onto your memories,
You got another thing coming.
If you wanted in, and I'm holding on;
We won't be waiting here all night, now.
I can't be waiting here all night.

Well, I'll just call and see what's goin' on.
What ya doin' then?
Do you know that I miss you?
We miss you.
It's as easy as 1, 2, 3, L-O-V-E
Wake up and forget everything.
The year's been past, I've been so fast
And I miss you,
We miss you.

I put aside my feelings,
It's eating your insides.

Ya better, think twice, now you could lose everything,
You got another thing coming.
And I'm holding in, I'm holding on;
I could wait out here for hours.
Think twice, hold onto your memories,
You got another thing coming.
If you wanted in, and I'm holding on;
We won't be waiting here all night, now.
I can't be waiting here all night.

No, we never asked for,
But I'll be waiting.
I know you can control him,
I'll be waiting.
Do you wanna stop it?
I'll be waiting.
You're gonna have to fight for it,
I'll be waiting.

Hold on tonight, 'cause you're coming home.
Hold on tonight, 'cause you're coming home.
Yeah!

Think twice, hold onto your memories,
You got another thing coming.
If you wanted in, and I'm holding on;
We won't be waiting here all night, now. (whoa!)
I'll be here all night, 'cause you're coming home.
