

drive

We've been driving through the city sipping memories, talking pretty Must've forgot the time
I guess it hasn't really hit me it's the last time that you're with m e
Must've forgot my mind

You're not once in a million
You're once in a life
And letting you go, it just isn't a vibe
And I'm just not ready to do it tonight
Don't say goodbye

Before we lose it, do this, turn up the music
I wanna drive tonight
Maybe it's stupid, useless, turn up the music
I need to hold you tight

I'll be chasing you like whiskey, you say you already miss me
I'll miss the both of us
Thinking back to last November, that's the us that I'll remember
No getting over us

You're not once in a million
You're once in a life
And letting you go, it just isn't a vibe
And I'm just not ready to do it tonight
Don't say goodbye

Before we lose it, do this, turn up the music
I wanna drive tonight
Maybe it's stupid, useless, turn up the music
I need to hold you tight

When we get out of this car
We'll go back to who we are
I don't wanna go home alone
Before we lose it, do this, turn up the music
I wanna drive tonight

I finally changed for the better, it only got worse
Why we can't we turn into something else?
I finally changed for the better, it only got worse
Why we can't we turn into something else?

Before we lose it, do this, turn up the music
(I wanna drive tonight)
Maybe it's stupid, useless, turn up the music
I wanna drive tonight
